

The Governors Island Gazette

MARCH 12, 1987

Photo by SA Bart Donaldson

White Marine, Inc., a ship repair contractor, recently corrected problems with the bridge lift of the Governors Island Ferry slip when the ferry "Governor" found difficulty docking in high tides. The problem was corrected in about three hours by shortening the bridge cable, thus allowing the bridge to be raised higher, which enabled the ferry to dock properly.